2. BASIS OF THE CONTRACT

2.1 Quotations are not binding on the Seller who may refuse to accept any Order at its discretion and may withdraw the Quotation before acceptance of an Order. An Order shall be deemed to be accepted only when the Seller has sent a written acceptance or has commenced work upon or despatched or otherwise appropriated items for the performance of the Order.

2.2 Each Order so accepted constitutes a separate legally binding Contract between the Seller and the Buyer.

2.3 The Contract will be subject to these Conditions only and no qualifications or condition contained in any request for quotation, Order, or other communication from the Buyer shall form any term of the Contract unless expressly accepted in writing by a director of the Seller. This does not prevent the Seller from correcting typographical or other errors or omissions in documents or information issued by the Seller.

2.4 These Conditions constitute the entire understanding of the parties and supersede all prior promises, representations, and undertakings.

2.5 Unless otherwise stated therein a Quotation will lapse thirty days after its date of issue. Any Quotation that has lapsed must be reconfirmed with the Seller prior to an Order being accepted.

2.6 Orders are accepted subject to the credit status of the Buyer being satisfactory to the Seller and the Seller may cancel the Contract if its credit enquiries at any time prove unsatisfactory to it.

2.7 The Order must be accompanied by all information necessary for the Seller to proceed with the Contract. The Buyer is responsible for ensuring the accuracy of any Order submitted by the Buyer. If work is delayed or additional costs incurred through lack of such information or changes in information, the Seller may amend the Contract price to cover the additional costs (including insurance and/or storage) and/or extend the delivery date.

2.8 All prices quoted are based on information available at the time of Quotation. The Seller reserves the right to vary prices at any time without notice prior to the date of the order being accepted and the price payable by the Buyer shall be the price applicable at the date of the order being accepted.

2.9 Delivery of the Goods to the Buyer is conclusive proof that the Buyer has accepted the Conditions to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions (if any) and in those of the Buyer.

2.10 No addition, variation or substitution to the Contract shall be binding or form any part of the Order unless agreed in writing between the authorised representatives of the Buyer and Seller [prior to the date of the Contract].

2.11 The Seller reserves the right to modify Goods ordered which are required to confirm with any applicable safety or statutory instruments or which do not materially affect their quality or performance.

3. PRICE

Unless otherwise agreed in writing the price is ex-sellers works and is expressed in pounds sterling net and is exclusive of VAT and all other taxes, levies, import duties and charges of a similar nature and all carriage, insurance, packing and freight charges. Any overseas taxes and duties will be the responsibility of the Buyer. Where such price is based upon a currency other than pounds sterling any fluctuations in the exchange rate of such currency against pounds sterling between the date of Order and the date of the Seller's invoice which adversely affect the Seller shall be passed on to the Buyer who shall pay the same in accordance with the clause 5 hereof.

4. CREDIT TERMS

The Buyer is responsible for payment of any bank or transmission charge in addition to the price. The Seller may invoice and apply for payment for each delivery separately.

5.4 The time for performance of the Buyer's obligation (whether as to payment or otherwise) shall be of the essence so that failure to perform shall entitle the Seller at his option, to treat the Contract as repudiated by the Buyer or to delay shipment or otherwise withhold performance (in which event the Seller's time for performance shall be extended accordingly). In the case of delivery by installments, failure to perform in respect of one delivery shall entitle the Seller, at its option, to cancel or delay or withhold performance in respect of that delivery or other deliveries, or to treat the whole Contract as repudiated by the Buyer.

5.7 The Seller shall be entitled to make a claim against the Buyer for the unpaid amount.

5.8 The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller (after as well as before judgment and on as many occasions as necessary to indemnify fully the Seller) against any loss or expense which the Seller may suffer in the event of any delay in payment or other breach of Contract by reason of any change in currency exchange rates between the date payment fell due and the date payment is actually received by the Seller and no proof or evidence of any actual loss shall be required by the Buyer.

5.9 The Seller will make an administration charge of £25 for each and every cheque not honoured by the Sellers bank in addition to any other remedy the Seller may choose to take.

The Goods may be delivered by the Seller in advance of the agreed delivery date upon giving reasonable notice to the Buyer.

6.3 The Seller reserves the right to make deliveries by installments. The Buyer shall accept delivery of the Goods by installments if the Seller so requests.

6.4 If the Buyer, having been notified the Goods are ready for delivery or (as the case may be) collection, fails to accept delivery or make collection, or if the delivery date is varied at the Buyer’s request or if no adequate delivery instructions are provided by the Buyer, then without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it, the Seller may invoice the Buyer for the price of the Goods (which the Buyer shall pay as though the Goods had been delivered) and may:

(a)store the Goods until actual delivery and charge the Buyer for the reasonable costs of storage and insurance and all other expenses incurred by it in respect of those Goods; or

(b)sell the Goods at the best price readily obtainable and (after deducting all reasonable storage and selling costs) account to the Buyer for the excess over the price under the Contract or charge the Buyer for any shortfall below the price under the Contract.

6.5 If the Buyer fails to accept delivery fourteen days after being notified that the Goods are ready for despatch, the Seller may, at its option and in addition to the rights, treat this as a cancellation of the order with effect from the date the Seller notified the Buyer that the Goods were ready for dispatch. In these circumstances clause 5.4 shall apply.

6.6 Where the Goods are delivered by installments, each delivery shall be deemed to be a separate Contract and failure by the Seller to deliver any one or more installments shall not entitle the Buyer to treat the Contract as a whole as repudiated or reject any other installments.
